Federal Reserve Bank of New York - Manager - Cash Dept.

Dear Sir:

Your letter of November 6th is at hand.

I doubt that you will find any coins issued before 1000 B.C. The Greek coinage is thought not to antedate 700 B.C. previous to that barter. I shall try to send you an article on the beginnings of money which is very well written, and this will perhaps help you somewhat.

I shall, also, endeavor to send you some information regarding the paper money concerning which you ask, but I am inclined to doubt that there is any such single volume as you describe.

I will let you hear from me a little later.

Very truly yours,

Secretary
